

Data Acquisition

The data acquisition classes were held between 5th and 9th May, in the UCM premises. The students had the opportunity to perform data surveys, soil sampling and interaction with the local community.

Problem based learning/Curricular development theories

The problem based learning and curricular development theories training courses were held in UCM premises in Nampula - July 2014

Quantitative Methods

The last curricular unit of the first semester was Quantitative Methods, which took place between 9th and 13th June in Nampula.

Remote Sensing and Data Analysis

The Second Semester began in July 2014 with Remote Sensing and Spatial Analysis. It was held in Cuamba at the Agriculture School.

RUFORUM Conference

Between 21st to 25th July, the RUFORUM Conference was held in Maputo. A communication about the AgIM Project was presented there.

Esri International Education Conference

A paper about AgIM was presented in the Esri International Education Conference in San Diego, United States.

1as Jornadas Lusófonas CTIG

In September, AgIM was represented in the 1as Jornadas Lusófonas CTIG

AgIM UniCV Inaugural session

The official opening of AgIM UniCV was held in September

UniCV Meetings

Meetings of the Quality Assurance Board Meeting and of the Project Education Advisory Committee Board at UniCV

GIS and Precision Farming

The 1st semester of the AgIM UniCV started with GIS and Precision Farming, taught by Prof. Marco Painho

Implementation of precision farming in the community

The Implementation of precision farming in the community curricular unit, was held in November together with Educational Technologies training course.
